“ I can't believe how much fun we had doing random crazy stuff like the last minute (multiple) midnight drives to Atlantic City and gambled the night and day away. Going to our first Nascar race together was beyond Epic! Taking trips to the drag strip was awesome. All the beers for our “social drinking” and the “friends” was hilarious. Going to Disney world was also great. It was all so much fun but just hanging with you and learning from the mechanic “God” while joking around was, and will always be, some of the best moments of my life. You called me your Son and I always felt your love. Thank you for always being there and for your love, friendship, wisdom, patience, and the fantastic sense of humor. I will always miss you and Champ misses you too and your hot fudge sundays.

“ There are people that come into this world and into your life to make it a brighter, happier place. Pap and Mamaw are two of those amazing people. I picture you both dancing together again. Calfsper loves you. You have a magical place in my heart and I am better because you were in my life. You leave that legacy in the love that Emmy and Claudius show to all. Sending our love

“ Thanks for All the Sunday Morning/afternoon breakfasts for the Entire house. There will be less laughter and joy now that you are with Mamaw. Tell her how much I missed her everyday. You know you were always my favorite as I know I was yours.

You were a great teacher, rule breaker, baby blue eyed joy/fun maker, you had major talent in the kitchen and on machinery, you loved to make people laugh (Mamaw most of all).

I have so many great memories with you in them and thank you for each and every one of them.

Those who choose not to be with you, will never know the freedom of no regrets.

Champ misses you more than your ice cream.
I will take good care of your son, Claude!
I will miss & love you everyday I'm alive.
So much more I could say, but I was able to tell you while you were here to hear!
I will keep your humor alive in the Deep Deep Blue kinda way.
Thanks for being MINE.....
MJ
