

Aurora T Virgen

August 6, 1949 - July 31, 2025

He has shown Himself to be her fortress. -Psalm 48:3 (adapted)

Aurora Tsuchiya de Virgen, passed away on July 31st, 2025 due to complications related to disease, AML (Acute Myeloid Leukemia). She passed a few days prior to what would have been her 76th birthday. Aurora's soul is surrounded by family and loved ones on her journey.

Born on August 6th, 1949 in Mexico City, Aurora was a beloved daughter, granddaughter, sister, of a large family (5) sisters and (4) brothers, which they stayed close to, her grandma was the center of a huge family. All of them were entrepreneurs with their own dental practice. Aurora graduated in business administration and worked for one of the family practices, then bank and gypsum board industry. When her father died, she continued the leadership of a very successful dentistry practice, counseling her mother with the real estate.

When she married Alvaro, and her traveling began, moving to several states, and countries, consequently took her away from her family. All the time a relocation happens, she coordinates the process from packing, including the pet, loading, finding the best schools in the new location, with awesome adaptability and successful results in a timely manner and budget.

She touched the lives of many with her profound sense of humor, warmth, creativity, curiosity, and gregarious, outgoing nature. Aurora was a generous friend and possessed an uncanny ability to connect to just about anyone. She possessed a brilliant mind, disarming wit, and an empathetic heart. She had a rare gift of building; she did several homes to accommodate needs for the children's growth and their own space. Aurora always economically supported several Catholic charities.

Aurora was able to stretch a small budget, so all the family live happy, comfortable, safe and excel in the schools. No matter what part of the country we were living in.

When we had an empty nest, she enjoyed ballroom dancing, excellent musical skills and tempo, Aurora went through the certification of hairdresser and cosmetology, cooking. She never had a day off because someone in the family had an issue, she was there to help and pull the slack.

Aurora's legacy has left a significant positive impact in our lives resulting that all of us having a comfortable situation and entrepreneurs enjoying good health

Aurora's personal mission was to create a sustainable, happy, and unified family by helping all of us transform and grow wisdom.
