Dearest "Big Brad",

A combination of pain, warmth, and wonderful thoughts have raced through my mind over this past weekend until I cried myself to sleep. Earth is our temporary home and for those that love and miss you, especially your beautiful grand children that we share, will never accept you being forgotten or alone.

I saw the caring, understanding and proud man you were to your two son's, your wife and beautiful grand children that will sadly go on without your unconditional love that you so humbly gave. ❤️

You were constant in your efforts to take the best care of your family and grand babies through a life changing pandemic that is still causing destruction in such an unpredictable and unforgiving world. ☐

May you Rest In Peace and know how much I appreciated you as a "Papa" to Remington and Derringer; they will always remember the happiness you shared through all the holidays and celebrations together💔😭
