“ Can't believe that you're gone so soon. I remember when I bought my ferro and took you for a ride and I hit the gas pedal and the force pushed you into the back of seat and you said "damn Uncle Chris that was fast" and we both laughed. I also remembering always asking you to talk more slowly because you would speak like speedy Gonzales. LOL.. I pray that nanny, grandma boo and your brother were waiting for you when you arrived in heaven. Even though we lived so far far apart and didn't get to spend more time together you will always be in my heart because you're the first niece that I ever babysat for and held..I will see you when it's my time to meet our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ...XOXO Uncle Chris & Jeff
