“ Debbie and I attended Northeast High School, played volleyball and just hung out together. I was in attendance for her first marriage, and she was a bridesmaid in my wedding. As too often happens, we lost contact with each other and found each other again by searching on Facebook. It was so nice to visit her on several occasions and be introduced to her Aunt, Sean and her grand daughters who she loved more than they will ever know. She is now at peace and full of grace. Love you dear friend.

“ I first met Debbie at The Home Depot. We became instant friends!
Turns out she was from Gilberton and my family was from Mahanoy
City and we lived in Orange Park Florida!

Talk about a small world!

Over the years I watched Sean, Sarah and David grow up, watched Sean get married and start his own family.

Debbie and I would keep in touch through Facebook and we would run into each other at The St Catherine's Bazaar every year!

Our conversations would pick up right where we left off.

Every time I'd see her she'd give me a big hug and start telling me all about her family. Her Grand daughters were her life! She was so proud of them and I think they kept her going.

I was so sad to hear the news, I never expected that call! My only regret was we were always going to meet up for lunch and we never did!

Every time I go to the beach and every time I see a Dolphin, I will think of my sweet friend!
