“ My fondest memory of my brother was when I was 9 years old in California ,he came over and he ask me if I would like a ride on his motorcycle,of course I thought that was so cool at my age and being my first time ,but 5 years later he took me on a ( run) ride up throughout the mountains, I had so much fun...love you my brother,I have a lot of memories that I can go on and on, but I am grateful for the last year's I got to spend with you, til we meet again,your sister vicki
