

Elizabeth Marie Olson

February 20, 1948 - July 24, 2023

Mrs. Elizabeth "Beth" Marie Olson was born February 20th 1948 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Mary and George Schubert. Beth was the oldest of 4 children Barbara, Robert, and Beverly. Throughout Elizabeth's life she had many jobs including waitress, white castle employee, and security guard at Avon. Beth found her true calling working as a preschool teacher for Rainbow school until retirement. Elizabeth has two lovers throughout her lifetime, Ellis Wandell Lambert who fathered her children and Kenneth Roy Olson who helped raise her two daughters after Beth and Ellis divorced in the 80's. Kenneth and lived a very happy life together raising their family and eventually got married in June of 2000. Unfortunately the love story came to a pause when Kenneth passed away January 17th, 2017 surrounded by those who loved him dearly. As time passed and Beth developed dementia she still never forgot what's most important, the love she had for her family and of course Elvis Presley. Elizabeth's beautiful soul was called to heaven July 24th, 2023. She leaves behind her brother Robert Schubert and his family. Her nephew Andre Nobs Jr. Danna, her sister Beverly, her daughters and 7 grandchildren Margot, her Husband and her 2 daughters Lauren and Daniella, Georganne, her Husband Phillip their 3 kids Daniel, Brianna, and Aliayah, and Millie and her 2 sons Dylan and Nolen. As well as 3 great grandchildren. Leila, Adam, and Gabriella.

“ I've had the pleasure of working with Mrs Olson at two different facilities she's always been kind soft spoken and a pleasure to work with no matter good days or unfortunately sometimes bad days if you played a little Elvis Presley especially Blue suede shoes she would tap her little feet away like there was no tomorrow I choose to remember that memory of her and pray that she's in heaven dancing away to Blue suede shoes may she rest in peace
