

Frank Smith, IV

November 16, 2001 - February 13, 2023

On Monday, February 13, 2023, Frank Steven Smith IV, passed away near his home in Jacksonville, Florida. He is survived by his father Frank Smith, III and stepmother Susan Lane. He was 21 years old. Frank Steven was born in Jacksonville November 16, 2001. He attended Fishweir Elementary, LaVilla Middle School and Douglas Anderson High School where he studied music. He excelled in playing saxophone for the DA Jazz Band and Symphony Orchestra. He is at peace. He asked to be cremated and have his ashes scattered in "a beautiful place." Memorial services are to be announced.

Tribute Wall

ZO

“ O remember how much he loved his granddad and Maria.... How he rode his scooter down the driveway of Maria's house right into the street.... freaked me out but he made it past that life's phase.... What happened? How did a beautiful child sooooo young die? What happened?

Zoey - February 27, 2023 at 07:50 PM