Ian Piscitelli

March 30, 1996 - September 06, 2024

Ian Piscitelli has joined his maternal grandparents John and Beatrice Hooker, his aunt Sarah Wilson and he is accompanied by his wife Briana. Ian is survived by his mother Joyce Piscitelli (nee' Hooker), his brothers Vincent and Zachary, many aunts, uncles, cousins and many loving family and friends. Ian graduated from Countryside High School in Clearwater, FL, where he was a valued member of the wrestling team. Ian proudly enlisted in the United States Army where he served for nine years as an Infantry Man, which included two tours in Afghanistan and achieved the rank of Sergeant. A grateful nation thanks Ian Piscitelli for his honorable service.

Ian was enrolled at Western Governor's University and majoring in Computer Science.

A memorial service date and time to be posted in the future.
