“ Megan. There are no words except that my heart is broken. I remember the first time I met you, I was so enthralled with your beautiful red hair and your sparkling smile. I loved you at that very moment. I will cherish all of our many talks and all of our special memories of our times spent together. You will remain in my heart forever. I love you "Meggie!"

“ My beautiful Megan. Words will never express the deep sorrow I feel with your passing. A bright light has gone out in this world. I will never forget when you asked me if I had a baby growing inside me before I even knew I was pregnant. You had a special gift and an intuition like no other. Throughout the years you always managed to keep in contact with me, and I will forever be grateful for our memories and many conversations we had recently. I remember holding you as a baby with your broken tiny little arm, it was the smallest cast I had ever seen. I hope and pray you're at peace and watching over your beautiful babies. Until we meet again, rest in ultimate paradise my sweet, beautiful girl. I will always love you.

“ *Megan,
Not a day goes by that I don't think of you. I wish your life had a different ending, as you deserved so much more. I know your spirit and love will live on in each of your children, Jesse-Raquelynne-Seraphanna and Angelica. Love you always and forever.
Until we meet again-Shana*

Megan Victoria, you came into the world fighting for your life and out of the world the world that is agonizing. We have been trying to get together for so long and blocked from circumstances and knowing I will never see, hear, talk, or hold you is unimaginable. You have always been a wonderful person. I am grateful for all of the time we have had and I hope you are at peace. I will love you until my dying day. From your Mother

You were the sweetest child - bright, inquisitive, loving. You and Erika showed me how much fun it is to be a grandparent. I loved the time we spent with y'all. You were absolutely fearless - as was your sister. I watched you skip blissfully down the street at Disney with your tiny hand in that of a huge blue bear; and you were just laughing! You liked to help me cook, because you really liked to eat. You would climb up on that wooden stool so you could see, and help clean corn, and you really loved to help bake. You and Erika brought new life and new perspectives into our lives. It had been a long time since we had sleepy children to cuddle. I am grateful to your parents for giving us that time. We lost touch for a while as you grew older, but I'm glad we reconnected. I know you had your struggles, but you never gave up on life, and you loved your babies fiercely. Rest well, sweet Megan. You are missed, and you were loved.

“Megan was my best friend and she's the amazing and supportive as i do for too. I believed in her that she can do this to change the positive and happy life she want to have. We created the many memories to remember the laughters/smiling and the spirit to see together... I love that who she was for. Im blessed to have her in my life and heart.
