“ The first thing that comes to mind about my dad. We spent many summers in Anna Maria Island and this one day we were fishing on the pier. I had caught a Jack, a reel fighter. I tried to give my dad the rod but he wouldn't take it. He made me reel that fish in. He never let me give up. That moment, and many more, are what made me who I am today. He never gave up on me and was always there with words of wisdom and advice.
