

Michael Anthony Parham

July 28, 1976 - October 8, 2024

Michael Anthony Parham, 48, passed away on October 8, 2024, after a life of humor, creativity, and perseverance. Born July 28, 1976, in West Palm Beach, Florida, Michael lived in Florida, Georgia, and Illinois.

He was a proud, skilled tradesman, a vested member of the Local 448, and a man who could always find solace in the quiet moments by the water, fishing rod in hand. He was humorous, and talented, and always found ways to make others laugh, even when life weighed heavily on him. His love for the outdoors was a constant companion, offering him peace when the world felt too much.

Michael is survived by his mother and stepfather, Leslie and Raymond Padgett; his father, Terry Parham; his sister, Valerie (Thomas) Jackson; and his brother, Timothy (Kelsie) Parham.

He is remembered by his children: Kayleigh, Derek, and Timothy Parham, and their mother, Shannon Parham. Michael is also survived by a close friend, Patricia Ogburn, and his nephews Robert (Kendra) Russell and their daughter, Harmony; Nicholas (Meghan) Russell and their daughter, Kylee Anne; Randy Heater Jr.; Rylan Parham; and Tristan Parham. He is also dearly missed by his niece, Bethany (Tanner) Pare.

His extended family includes Vickie and Dana Shautt and their children; Josh and Rachael Padgett and their children; and Jeanette Padgett and her child. Mike's loyal dog, Dewey, was a beloved companion.

A gathering for family and close friends will be held in his memory. May he rest in peace.
