In Loving Memory

MICHAEL WALLEY

Michael Walley, a loving father and husband, aged 35, residing in Jacksonville, Florida was in a motorcycle accident on his way home Thursday, February 23rd. He later passed away on Sunday, February 26th from injuries sustained.

Michael, born on September 10, 1987, to Mike Walley and (now) Sheila Soliman grew up with two siblings, older sister, Erica Greye, and younger brother, Daniel Walley.

He soon realized his first love was music and went on to spend the next 14 years working for Sam Ash Music Stores first in Clearwater, then later Orlando, and finally Jacksonville. He was starting the very latest chapter of his career enjoying his new job at Creeks Air Conditioning.

At the age of 26, he married Evin, and went on to have two beautiful children. Michael lived a full life, enjoying guitar or working on his motorcycle. He was very handy with anything he dedicated himself to. He was loved much and will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

“ I mentioned that my right wheel was pulling and making a weird grinding noise to Michael on a Sunday. Without hesitation he said "yeah I bet that's the wheel bearing" and proceeded to tell me what I needed to buy to fix it. I remember going over to the house on Wallington Drive (which I thought was perfect lol) There Michael and I worked on replacing the wheel bearing for at least 4 hours. 2 and a half of those hours was spent trying to get out the old wheel bearing. I admit, I was ready to give up and just have it towed to a mechanic but Michael kept at it and didn't complain once. In the end we got it fixed. And by we I mean Michael fixed it. He was an incredibly hardworking, helpful, and humble man. He will be missed.

“ Dear Michael, it was an honor to be your wife. I am comforted by our two beautiful children and as they grow I will teach them what a wonderful man their father was. You were deeply loved and words cannot express how much you will be missed. I am happy you are in heaven. I am just sad we did not have more time together. You were my rocking chair. I know you can't take even a moment for granted, and I have no regrets being your wife. We worked well independently and in tandem. We made a great team. You put up with me and I put up with you, and we built our world around God and each other. I know our time together on earth is done and that there will never be another us. I love our story. I love our history. And I will carry all our happy memories going forward. Rest in peace, my love.
