“ I met you when we were 8 or 9 years old pal, we covered a lot of ground in the 60 years we knew each other, never lost touch, and remained best friends till the very end. It's hard to think that I can't talk to you anymore, I will never forget you Rick. ❤️

“ Rick was a wonderful friend growing up in the projects...have so many great memories. Glad we reconnected the last couple of years. So much loss, in such a small amount of time. You are missed my friend! ❤️

“ Rick, one of my favorite in laws. Always smiling, was a great friend and always there if you needed him. Had many fun times over the years with Rick. Will truly be missed. RIP

“ I’ve started to write something three times. I can’t find the right words. Rick was simply Rick. He was not impressed with worldly goods, he was content with a cup of coffee and the company of his many friends. He loved his daughters, Jessica, Lisa and Amy, and would speak often. He loved his Mom and his Sister very much. He was a loyal friend to many and enjoyed the trips to Saratoga, he’d also share those stories. His smile lit up a room and his sense of humor was unmatched. We had lost touch several times over the years, but we always managed to connect periodically. There were many happy memories. I will be forever grateful for those. It saddens me that I will never hear his voice on the other end of the phone again. May he Rest In Peace.
