

Robert Casey O'Hanrahan

March 21, 1963 - January 29, 2025

Robert Casey O'Hanrahan, age 61, passed away on January 29, 2025, in Jacksonville, Florida.

Casey was preceded in death by both his parents, Martha Reed Adams Athnos, Colm O'Hanrahan, and his grandparents, Elise and Coye Robert Adams and a stepson Eric Boone. Casey is survived by his wife, Amy, and three adult children, Casey, Jr., Jet and Stryker.

Casey graduated from Englewood High School in 1981 where he was a football star but endured a play injury resulting in life-long physical problems. Despite that, Casey was a successful owner and operator of the Pro Cut Landscaping business throughout Duval County.

Casey enjoyed boating and fishing, loved his dogs and was an adventurous man. His young life was spent every summer through high school at his grandmother's farm in Luraville, Florida where he had the chance to live both as a country boy and a city boy in Jacksonville.

Many family members including his older brother, Kevin, of Jacksonville, and his aunt, Judy Adams of Live Oak, Florida, and many cousins are mourning his life gone too soon. While Casey struggled the last several years he was loved and will be missed forever.

“ I was sad to hear about Casey. We lost touch many moons ago, but I will always be thankful for our friendship that we did have. Please accept my deepest Condolences as I can only imagine how difficult this must be for his Brother Kevin, his boys and the rest of his family. May you find comfort in the memories you’ve have shared with him and find peace in the days ahead... ❤️ Nanc
