“ I’m so sorry to read this. I met Tilinda in St. Louis where we worked at the bank together. She was the most beautiful person inside and out. I was having financial difficulties and I hardly knew her and she offered to help me. When she moved back to Cayman Islands she left me her furniture. I last spoke with her in September while she was in the hospital. She’s now resting peacefully. Sorry I didn’t make it down to see you! Love your friend Evelyn

“ Oh how you will be missed. My beloved cousin. All the funny things we did and loving moments we shared. You have your wings now until we meet again. I will always love you.

“ Word's can't begin to express the loss, of one who face challenges and more... One who look at life in so many ways, and yet always managed to do it her way. Tilinda, thanks for the memories and for the laughs as we grew up. I know that your sister Lisa, met you at the gates with open arms and welcomed you home. Memories come to play especially the one where you were letting us drive your car, and the moment when one of us drove the car into the ditch. Funny indeed as well as always listening to The Deltronics, and the crazy song: Juicy Fruit.. You told us about the ghost that was in your home, when you lived across from the street from the Cemetery and you called him, Mr. Wilson. The moments and memories are truly endless... Now you've earned your wings and are finally home at peace, no more pain and suffering.. Rest my dear cousin, Rest and Until We Meet Again...
