Tracy Lynne Taylor

August 16, 1964 - April 13, 2026

It is with sadness and loving remembrance that we announce the passing of Tracy Lynne Taylor, 61, who died peacefully on April 13, 2026. She was born in St. Vincent's Hospital , Jacksonville, as was her father, Calvin.

Tracy was the cherished daughter of Sandra and Calvin Beaver. She was predeceased by her mother, Sandra Beaver, as well as her dear grandparents, Pauline and Pop Beaver and Houston and Catherine Hodges. She is survived by her father, Calvin Beaver (Nancy), her daughter, Savannah Hawkins (Paul) and her brothers, Steven Beaver and Michael Beaver (Susan). She leaves many dear friends.

Tracy graduated from Orange Park High School. Her professional life was marked by serving as an executive assistant at CNN in Atlanta and Curascript in Orlando.

Travel was a passion as she traveled across Europe and her experience of living as a Navy brat throughout the country.

Her family extends their heartfelt gratitude to the compassionate staff at St.

Vincent's Riverside Hospital and Community Hospice who brought comfort to Tracy in her final days. As we mourn the loss of Tracy, we also celebrate the indelible mark she left on our hearts.

“ I knew Lynne in high school. Met her through our mutual friend Alan McElroy. She quickly became a part of our friend group. Going to the Rocky Horror Picture Show, open mic nights at the Spindrifter, and bon fire parties in the fields of Youngerman Circle. My fondest memory of her is this; one night she took my favorite ball cap ( a Skeeters Big Biscuit hat) off my head and proceeded to try and resize it. In doing this she ripped all the little posts off...LOL. I gave her a good natured hard time and duct taped. A couple of weeks later she surprises me with a brand new Skeeters hat in the same color. To me this shows the person she was; kind, caring and considerate.

“ I knew Tracy through my husband Richard who was Calvin's cousin. The one thing about her was her wicked sense of humor. She could always make you laugh. She was a loving and caring young lady. She will be missed by everyone who knew her.
