

Wendell Ray Varnadore, Jr

May 14, 1993 - April 7, 2022

Wendell Ray Varnadore Jr. - to everyone you were "Little Ray" and from the moment you entered this world on May 14th, 1993, you brought nothing but laughter and smiles to everyone you met. You were the goofball of the family, and we all loved you for it. Your story will not be forgotten, nor will we ever forget you. On April 7th, 2022, at the age of 28, you passed away in the comfort of your home. Ray is survived by his mother Shannon Wilkerson, and his father Wendell Ray Varnadore, Sr., his many brothers and sisters, Amanda Pitts (Anthony), Brianna & Jonathan Varnadore, Hannah Cason, John & Hayden Lilly. Ray also fathered a beautiful little girl named Layla. He had 3 nieces (Aerianna, Shyanne and his babygirl Liana) and a nephew Adonis. He had many aunts, uncles, and lots of cousins who loved him. He is preceded in death but reunited with his Uncle Donald who was like a parent to him his whole life. He will be missed by both sides of his big family, and the many friends he made through out his life. His bright smile and goofiness is what we all wish to see again one day. We are all saddened by his death, but have peace that he is no longer in pain or suffering. He is whole again and running the streets of gold!

“ We had many memories from when u were a baby all way up to adult and I'll always cherish them my lil cuz! Your definitely missed and you were loved more then you knew. I hate that it was your time but i'm thankful you aren't in anymore pain. This isn't good bye because I'll see you again when it's my time to walk through those golden gates but until then may you rest in paradise. Love u lil Ray!!!
