“ I had the honor of meeting Zack early 2023. Such a short time honestly felt like years. I'm so grateful for the time I did have with him though. He was a good friend and a great man. He always tried to be the strong one when it came to any struggles he faced, but even when he tried to be serious, his goofiness would shine through. He never failed to make me smile and laugh. I saw the love and care he had for his family and friends, I saw how strong he was through any hardships he faced. He really had such a big heart, and a beautiful soul. I am so thankful for him and I know he's now at peace and happy to be with the loved ones he was missing before. He will be missed tremendously but a day won't go by that he is forgotten. I love you frien, rest well. LLZ ☐🕊️

So sorry Inger
It is so tough to bury a child
Just seems so unfair to families that have to endure such a tragedy
Thoughts and prayers to you
His mother and all the family 🙏🙏🙏
